

China Show

November 9 – December 14, 2010

"le deluge, après mao"

China's Surging Creative Tide:

An Exhibition of Work by Significant Contemporary Chinese Artists

Curated by Patricia Eichenbaum Karetzky, O. Munsterberg Chair of Asian Art, Bard College, NY; and Professor of Art History, Lehman College, NYC; with curatorial assistance from the Director and Curator, UTC Cress Gallery of Art, Chattanooga, TN.

Lecture by Curator Patricia Karetzky followed by a reception
Thursday November 18, 2010, Room 356 UTC Fine Arts Center

Admission to the Cress and all events associated with exhibitions are open to the public and free of charge. Parking is free in any UTC lot after 5:00pm and on weekends.

Gallery hours: 9:30am – 7:30pm Monday – Friday; 1:00pm – 4:00pm Sat & Sun. For more information contact ruth-grover@utc.edu or call 423-304-9789. Visit www.utc.edu/cressgallery or join the Cress Gallery of Art on Facebook.

Images: Gao Lei, "Monk" 2009, pigment inks on archival glossy photo paper 90" x 90"
Gao Brothers, "The Forever Unfinished Building No.4" 2008, C-print 116.5" x 39"

Also at UTC:

"Wuxi" An Exhibition of Photographs by Artists from Wuxi, China.
Chattanooga's Sister City: UTC University Center, 1st and 3rd floors: November 4 thru November 29, 2010

"Focus on China" A series of programs and speakers presented by the UTC College of Arts and Sciences, November 4 – November 18, 2010; contact xxxx for more information.

Sponsored by:

The UTC College of Art and Sciences
The UTC Office of the Provost
The UTC University Center
Chattanooga Sister Cities
Allied Arts of Greater Chattanooga
and The UTC Friends of the Gallery

